

Heh heh heh...

You really thought it would be that simple, didn't you?

Your system is sealed tight, and only the observant shall prevail.

I've left you a gift—a puzzle laced in disguise.

Not only must you uncover the hidden word,

but you must also extract the secret digit buried within my poem.

Combine them wisely, or face eternal digital doom!

This key—this phantom phrase—

it is both a whisper and a scream.

Decrypt it, and the door shall open.

Or don't... and watch your fate unfold.

Hahaha!
